VOLUNTEER WORK

IT-support and homework help for the organization Individuell Människohjälp. I volunteered evenings in the public library. As IT-support I helped inexperienced computer users. Other evenings I helped students from high school and from SFI with their homework.

PUBLICATION

My master thesis in speech and language therapy resulted in an article that was published.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Frontend developer, Telia 2019-now

At Telia I work in team Context, which are responsible for sitewide resources, such as navigation, general UI components, analytics. We work close together with the content editors, as we create editable components to our CMS which they use to build the site.

IT-consultant, Academic Work 2018-2019

After finishing Academys accelerated learning program, I started working as a consultant at Academic Work. I got an assignment at Telia and was recruited by them a year later.

Speech- and language therapist, Röstkonsulten 2013-2018

Worked with focus on children with speech- and language disorders as well as with children with selective mutism. My responsibilities were investigation, diagnose, treatment and informing relatives. Apart from working directly with patients it was also included to inform/advice/cooperate with other professions working close to the child, and an obligation to keep medical records.

Consultant, Academic work 2010-2012

While studying to become a speech and language therapist, I worked part time as a consultant. I worked mostly for Philips Respironics, where I handled their customer service which meant dealing with orders, send invoices, answer the phone and handle offers.

I also worked at Nordea as a switchboard operator.

Receptionist på Ibis Hotel Arlanda 2007-2009

Started out working in the hotel restaurant and was then offered a permanent employment as night receptionist. I worked nights for 10 months, and thereafter I started working days instead. Apart from handling the front desk I also drove guests to and from the airport.
